Diálogo

Inglés Nivel Avanzado - Lección 3 - People (La Gente)

KAREN - Is this seat available?

GARY - Yes. Sit down.

KAREN - I'm so glad I got a seat. I'm really tired today.

GARY - So am I. It's been a long day, huh?

KAREN - It sure has. Where do you work?

GARY - In the Commerce Building on the third floor. I work in real estate.

KAREN - Really?! I work on the tenth floor. I work in the newspaper office.

GARY - I love working downtown but parking is so crazy here I started taking the subway.

KAREN - Me too. I can't stand getting stuck in a traffic jam.

GARY - Neither can I. Have you worked downtown for long?

KAREN - For about five years now.

GARY - So have I. I've worked here for five years and two months to be exact.

KAREN - It was hard to get used to all of this traffic because I'm from a much smaller place. I was born in Rockford, Illinois.

GARY - So was I! Wow! What a coincidence!

KAREN - Wow! What high school did you go to?

GARY - I went to Guilford High School.

KAREN - No way! So did I.

GARY - I graduated in 1985.

KAREN - I graduated in '87. I don't remember seeing you there.

GARY - I don't recognize you either.

KAREN - Oh no! Here's my stop. I need to get off the train.

GARY - This is your stop? Me too. Heh, do you want to go for a cup of coffee? I know a great coffee shop near here.

KAREN - Sure. Let's go.
